payment methods

You can pay your TELUS bill:

- Online through e.Bill at telusmobility.com/youraccount
- By pre-authorized credit card and bank payments
- By telephone/online banking - contact your financial institution
- In person at most financial institutions
- By mailing a cheque or money order in the business reply envelope supplied with your bill
- By making credit card payments over the phone

Payments are due upon receipt. Please allow enough time for payments to reach TELUS by the account statement date. Seven (7) business days may be needed for mail payments and three (3) days for bank payments. We will credit payments to the account on the day that TELUS receives them. TELUS will apply late payment charges of 2% per month compounded monthly (26.82% per annum) if payment is not received by the account statement date. Items returned for insufficient funds are subject to a $2.00 administration charge. Security deposits do not appear on your bill.

key terms

Your service period will start when the device identified at the beginning of this form is activated. At the end of your service period, your service will continue month to month, subject to the service terms applicable at that time. During the service period, TELUS will not increase your monthly plan rate or decrease the number of minutes or the volume of data included, but TELUS may change other charges, or apply additional charges, after giving you thirty (30) days' notice. The retailer has acted as an agent only for the activation of your mobility service with TELUS, and assumes no responsibility for the provision of the service. Your use of the service is subject to the Service Terms. A copy of the Service Terms and the "TELUS Privacy Commitment to You" is packaged with your device, and may also be found at telusmobility.com/serviceterms. The Service Terms express important legal rights, obligations and limitations. For example:

TELUS provides the service "as is" and "as available." The service may fail or be interrupted for many reasons, including environmental conditions, technical limitations, defects or failures, limitations of other telecommunications companies' systems, emergency or public safety requirements, or causes beyond our reasonable control. You use the service at your own risk.

TELUS may at any time make changes to its networks and undertake maintenance to network services without notice to you. TELUS may also update or change the software, features and settings on your device, including through "over-the-air" instructions sent without notice, to ensure the device meets TELUS standards. While such activities are undertaken, the service will not be available.

TELUS will not be liable to you or to anyone else for loss of profits, data, earnings, business opportunities or any other loss caused by use or failure of the service on any device used with the service.

TELUS networks are able to support a wide range of equipment. However, if you use equipment not purchased from TELUS, the service may not work with your equipment in all areas.

Enhanced 911

Enhanced 911, or e911, can provide emergency operators with improved location information which can be used to better assist people calling 911 from their mobile phones. For more information on this service, including the availability, limitations and characteristics of wireless e911 service and handsets, please visit telusmobility.com/e911.

TELUS may change the terms of your service, except for the monthly plan rate and the included number of minutes or volume of data, by giving you 30 days notice with your bill, by electronic messaging to your device, or by email. You may cancel any optional feature after receiving notice of a price increase for that feature. The new Service Terms will be posted at telusmobility.com/serviceterms.

Promotional Discounts

If you have received a promotional discount or rebate on the price of the device for activating a feature or plan on that device, you must either (a) continue to subscribe to that feature or plan for at least 12 months, or (b) pay a cancellation charge of $200 (as liquidated damages, not as a penalty) if you cancel that feature or plan, or change to a non-eligible feature or plan, within 12 months. The cancellation charge will also apply if TELUS terminates your service during this 12 month period as a result of your breach of the Service Terms.

Initial _____

Early Termination

If you cancel your service after using it but before the end of the service period you have chosen, a cancellation charge will apply (as liquidated damages and not as a penalty) for each terminated device in addition to all other amounts you owe to TELUS. The cancellation charge will be the greater of: (a) $20 multiplied by the number of months left in the service period, or (b) $100.

Initial _____

Roaming Charges

Roaming outside Canada is not included in your rate plan. Additional charges apply for all your voice or data usage that occurs outside Canada. Current TELUS roaming rates are listed at telusmobility.com and may change without other notice.

Initial _____

Data Usage

Data usage is subject to a monthly overage limit of 10GB. If you exceed this limit, TELUS may terminate all or any part of your service.

payment methods

You can pay your TELUS bill:

- Online through e.Bill at telusmobility.com/youraccount
- By pre-authorized credit card and bank payments
- By telephone/online banking - contact your financial institution
- In person at most financial institutions
- By mailing a cheque or money order in the business reply envelope supplied with your bill
- By making credit card payments over the phone

Payments are due upon receipt. Please allow enough time for payments to reach TELUS by the account statement date. Seven (7) business days may be needed for mail payments and three (3) days for bank payments. We will credit payments to the account on the day that TELUS receives them. TELUS will apply late payment charges of 2% compounded monthly (26.82% per annum) if payment is not received by the account statement date. Items returned for insufficient funds are subject to a $2 administration charge. Security deposits do not appear on your bill.

Your service period will start when the device identified at the beginning of this form is activated. At the end of your service period, your service will continue month to month, subject to the service terms applicable at that time. During the service period, TELUS will not increase your monthly plan rate or decrease the number of minutes or the volume of data included, but TELUS may change other charges, or apply additional charges, after giving you thirty (30) days' notice. The retailer has acted as an agent only for the activation of your mobility service with TELUS, and assumes no responsibility for the provision of the service. Your use of the service is subject to the Service Terms. A copy of the Service Terms and the "TELUS Privacy Commitment to You" is packaged with your device, and may also be found at telusmobility.com/serviceterms. The Service Terms express important legal rights, obligations and limitations. For example:

TELUS provides the service "as is" and "as available." The service may fail or be interrupted for many reasons, including environmental conditions, technical limitations, defects or failures, limitations of other telecommunications companies' systems, emergency or public safety requirements, or causes beyond our reasonable control. You use the service at your own risk.

TELUS may at any time make changes to its networks and undertake maintenance to network services without notice to you. TELUS may also update or change the software, features and settings on your device, including through "over-the-air" instructions sent without notice, to ensure the device meets TELUS standards. While such activities are undertaken, the service will not be available.

TELUS will not be liable to you or to anyone else for loss of profits, data, earnings, business opportunities or any other loss caused by use or failure of the service on any device used with the service.

TELUS networks are able to support a wide range of equipment. However, if you use equipment not purchased from TELUS, the service may not work with your equipment in all areas.

Enhanced 911, or e911, can provide emergency operators with improved location information which can be used to better assist people calling 911 from their mobile phones. For more information on this service, including the availability, limitations and characteristics of wireless e911 service and handsets, please visit telusmobility.com/e911.

TELUS may change the terms of your service, except for the monthly plan rate and the included number of minutes or volume of data, by giving you 30 days notice with your bill, by electronic messaging to your device, or by email. You may cancel any optional feature after receiving notice of a price increase for that feature. The new Service Terms will be posted at telusmobility.com/serviceterms.
